All northern Utah fans are eager to see the six club league as out-lined formed. The class of baseball Mrs. George Carter and her children lined formed. The class of baseball left for Salt Lake to make their home which has been dished out is easily of Class D type and keeps the fans on their toes throughout. The game Mrs. G. Jones of Salt Lake is visit- home Sunday after visiting two weeks terday, in which the former aggrewith Brigham and Smithfield yesgation won 8 to 4, demonstrated the class of the league. Although no definite action has been taken as yet, other than the calling of the meeting, which will probably be held Friday night, it is expected that the plans for the entire 1921 season will be gone over when

Some of the baseball stars have asked that the league be named the Utah State league. This phase of the meeting will be one of the interesting points of the session, it is declared.

LEAGUE BOOSTERS Manager Joe Van of the Brigham aggregation is one of the boosters for the new league Van said in part; "The new league as outlined would give the six towns first class base ball and that is what the fans are after I am sure that with the clubs listed in the lineup that the competition would be keen throughout. At any rate the league would be much faster more interesting and all in all keener than the Cache Valley and Wasatch leagues of the past season."
